Henley is a family friendly peninsula in the Hunters Hill Municipality and this is a property of rare distinction. A grand manor-like residence that has been custom built fusing the splendour of French Baroque inspired design with high-end contemporary interiors to deliver a forever family home in a dress-circle waterside enclave. Designed by internationally acclaimed architects Dickson Rothschild and built to world-class standards, the sprawling residence holds a commanding elevated setting on a private 790sqm approx with panoramic views over Abbotsford Point to Cabarita as a breathtaking backdrop. Live life on an epic scale with every luxury from a parent's wing to an outdoor entertainer's haven with a resort-style pool as centrepiece, lift access to all levels and spectacular water views.
